Responsive Reading

As Jesus was going to Jerusalem he borrowed a young donkey and began to ride it, fulfilling the ancient prophecy which predicted: “Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion; see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey’s colt.”

When the great crowd that had come to town for the Passover festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, they took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, “Hosanna in the highest!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Blessed is the king of Israel!”

Some of the Religious Leaders in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell your followers to stop making these wild claims about you and acting this way!” Jesus replied, “If they were to keep quiet, the very stones would start to shout with praise.”

So many people went out to welcome him that the Religious Leaders said to one another, “Look how the whole world has gone after him!” for they were envious of Jesus.

(John 12:12 – 19; Luke 19: 39-40; Matthew 27:18)
